DRURY PLAZA HOTEL SPONSORS SANTA FE SUPER SPOKE CYCLOCROSS

SANTA FE, N.M. – The Drury Plaza Hotel in Santa Fe is the host hotel and a sponsor of the Santa Fe Reporter’s Super Spoke, the capital’s inaugural cyclocross event, on Saturday, September 20, 1 – 7 p.m., at the Santa Fe Railyard. The course will be designed by Laurence Malone, a six-time U.S. National Cyclocross Champion and former coach of the U.S. National Team.

“We are thrilled to be the host hotel for the Super Spoke,” says Tauseen Malik, General Manager of Drury Plaza Hotel. “As Santa Fe’s newest downtown hospitality destination, we support cultural and athletic events which draw both locals and visitors from around the world. Our majestic mountains, pristine lakes and rivers, and year-round sunshine put Santa Fe on the national map for both amateur and professional sports enthusiasts. Being part of a health-focused and dynamic event such as Super Spoke is a great opportunity for us to help highlight the many outdoor activities available in our area, throughout the four seasons, for people of all ages.”

The Super Spoke event day includes kids races, semi-professional, and professional races.

The 182-room Drury Plaza Hotel in Santa Fe features all of the renowned amenities of Drury Hotels, as well as modern, spacious, light-filled rooms with stupendous views of the Santa Fe skies.

Guests will enjoy relaxing at the rooftop bar by the pool with breathtaking views of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains; and shopping in the galleries around the property. The fully renovated buildings are steeped in history and surrounded by beautiful gardens and walkways.
