DRURY HOTELS HEAD TO ABA MARKETPLACE IN NASHVILLE

Santa Fe, N.M. — The new Drury Plaza Hotel Santa Fe, scheduled to open in August 2014, will be represented, along with all Drury properties, at the American Bus Association (ABA) Marketplace, held at the new Music City Center in Nashville, Tennessee, January 11–15. More than 3,500 leaders in the travel and tourism community will be in attendance.

“We are excited to be a part of the American Bus Marketplace next week,” says Bryan Downey, National Sales Manager, Drury Hotels. “For 40 years, Drury Hotels has been focused on being No. 1 in friendly service with every guest. We’ll be debuting our newest property, in Santa Fe, New Mexico, at the convention. We look forward to seeing all of our friends in the tourism industry in Nashville. Please stop by Booth 2138!”

Downey and Lindsey Niday, National Sales Coordinator eLeads, will be available at Booth 2138 to share with ABA Marketplace attendees information about the 182-room Drury Plaza Hotel Santa Fe. The property will feature all of the renowned amenities of Drury Hotels, including free hot breakfast, cold beverages and hot food at the 5:30 p.m. Kickback®, free popcorn and soda in the lobby, free wireless Internet, and free long-distance and local phone calls. These inclusive amenities support the Drury’s tagline: The Extras Aren’t Extra.

The new Drury Plaza Hotel Santa Fe will feature a restaurant drawing from local ingredients and influences to create a mouthwatering cuisine, a rooftop bar by the pool with breathtaking views of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains, and convenient shopping in the galleries around the property. The fully renovated buildings are steeped in history and surrounded by beautiful gardens and walkways.

Drury Hotels is a St. Louis–based, family-owned and -operated hotel system with more than 130 hotels in 20 states, from Arizona to the Carolinas and from Texas to Michigan.
