LATE NIGHT LEGEND AND BLUE COLLAR FUNNYMAN AT BUFFALO THUNDER

SANTA FE, N.M. — Jay Leno, the King of Late Night takes the stage at Buffalo Thunder Resort & Casino, Saturday, June 4. And for more laughs in June see blue collar funnyman, Ron White on Thursday, June 30. Both stand-up comedians will be performing two shows at the property.

“We are very lucky to be able to bring both Leno and White back to Buffalo Thunder Resort & Casino this June,” says Kimberly Gonzalez, Director of Marketing, Buffalo Thunder Resort & Casino. “Both comedians are back by popular demand; their first shows at Buffalo Thunder were in 2009.”

Leno’s “everyman” style and personality have helped him earn millions of fans worldwide. In addition to his 18 years at a late night TV show host, he has won two Emmy Awards.

White’s current tour, "Behavioral Problems," will be full of old bits and new laughs as he sips his trademark glass of scotch and smokes a cigar. His opinions and observations will fill the Tewa Grand Ballroom with much-needed laughs. It is sure to be an uncensored and irreverent evening.

White performed with Jeff Foxworthy, Bill Engvall and Larry the Cable Guy in the highly acclaimed “Blue Collar Comedy Tour,” a show that played to sold out audiences in over 90 cities and grossed over $15 million. Warner Bros filmed the tour and “Blue Collar Comedy Tour: The Movie” was released as a major motion picture in theaters in March 2003, later premiering on Comedy Central as the highest rated movie in the channel’s history.
